SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

A. Abstract

Describe the proposed project in approximately 1 paragraph.

B. Timeline

Provide a specific timeline of major tasks proposed for your grant project, for instance, project design steps, data collection, analysis, write-up.

C. Current Grants or Pending Applications

List current grants or pending grant applications, both internal and external, and identify any that are related to the CGEP China research grant proposal. If this proposal is related to a project that already receives funding, describe the benefit of receiving additional grant money.

D. Funding Issues (if any)

If your Grant Budget Proposal indicates that your requested award from the CGEP fund will not cover all expected expenses, please explain how you will cover the difference (from what specific sources or potential sources).

E. Research Project and Expected Outcomes (approximately 2-4 pages)

Identify the major research or other activities you will carry out with research grant funding and the expected output. If relevant, explain how the project will make a contribution to the relevant policy field. Please highlight, if appropriate, the interdisciplinary and collaborative aspects of the work.
